Finding perfect properties

Case Study

Harbour Reach, Imperial Wharf, Fulham, SW6

Price: £1.175 million Date purchased: January 2015

The Client

An International buyer.

The Challenge

Our client was looking for a two bedroom, two bathroom apartment in good condition. The layout of the flat had to have a clear distinction between sleeping space and living space and ideally a separate utility room. The property also had to have a porter and be in a good location within Prime Central London. With a budget of £1.2 million, this presented us with a hard task.

The Perfect Conclusion

We were able to source an apartment which met all of the criteria and more - The property even benefited from a private balcony with views of the river. We also saved our clients £20,000 from the asking price as a result of our negotiations.

We're ready when you are.
