The Challenge

We sourced this stunning first floor apartment on one of South Kensington's best streets for our client in November 2011 for £2,825,000. Our clients had loved living at the property but with their children either at university or living abroad they no longer needed such a large home.

The Perfect Conclusion

Through our extensive network we identified two buyers who were interested in the property and accepted an offer at £3,825,000 or £1900 per square foot four weeks after being instructed on the sale. Our clients had been very concerned about the state of the market and so were delighted to have achieved such a strong price so quickly.

We're ready when you are.
